Lou Supina
Lehigh Valley Woodworking Guild
3111 Elizabeth Lane
Macungie, PA 18062

Dear Mr. Supina and the woodworkers of the Lehigh Valley Woodworking Guild:

I hope this letter finds you all healthy and weathering the inundations of snow we have had recently. I am very ready for Spring weather!

I have enclosed a thank you card for you. It was written by a client of ours whose daughter received the baby cradle that your organization so generously donated for one of our families. This energetic little girl loves to play with dolls and she was so excited to receive a bed just for her "dolly"! She immediately covered the doll with the beautiful blanket that came with the cradle. I hope you enjoy the photos that are included with the card!

We continue to be so extremely grateful for the items that your talented hands created. As I had told you before, the timelessness of these wooden creations remain a staple for these children and the development trajectories. We are honored that you have chosen to support the learning of these youngsters!

Thank you again! Please send our gratitude to the whole woodworkers guild and convey our heartfelt appreciation for their time and talent.

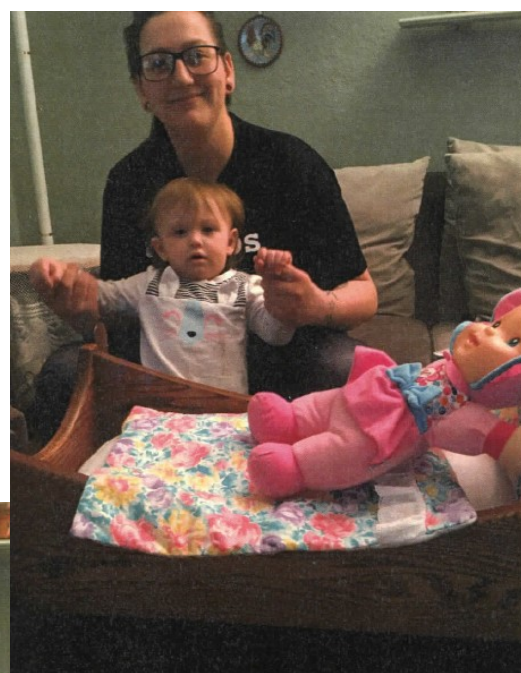

Sincerely,

Tina Wida

Thank you very much. My daughter is 2 and loves to put her babies in it and put them to sleep.

Thank you

STEERING COMMITTEE NOTES.

The Steering Committee again will be urging members to make blocks. Wood will be available at meetings for the "Block of the Month" program. Complete sets are now being suggested. Also starting this year we will be making as a group Trains, Rocking Horses and Toy Cars. More info to follow.

We are looking at ways to encourage more "Drag and Brag" participation.

Scholarship fund. Remember that LVWWG members will receive $10 from the Woodcraft of Allentown.

Dan Manturi has put together a short history of the Guild. If you have anything to add please let the Steering Committee know.

Shirts are still available—talk to Andy.

Hats are now available to those who ordered them. Also some extra were ordered—price $11.00.
